STATE CHOIR SUCCESS

On 19 October Penny Loiterton and Tamara Taylor travelled to Sydney to represent the Riverina region for the State Choir in Sydney. The girls had their first full day rehearsal on Sunday, 20 October with students from 39 other schools throughout New South Wales which was held at Lewisham Performing Arts School. This was the first time singing the repertoire as a group and they then had practice all day Monday and Tuesday in the afternoon at the Opera House. Sally Whitwell and Chantelle Duffield were the conductors for the concerts which were held on Monday and Tuesday night.

The girls had a great time, met lots of great people and were honoured to be given the opportunity to represent Cootamundra High School at a state level.
